And now, the end is near and so I face the final curtain
My friend, I'll say it clear I'll state my case, of which I'm certain I've lived a life that's full I traveled each and every highway
And more, much more than this I did it my way

Regrets, I've had a few but then again, too few to mention
I did what I had to do and saw it through without exemption
I planned each charted course each careful step along the byway
And more, much more than this I did it my way

Yes, there were times, I'm sure you knew when I bit off more than I could chew
But through it all, when there was doubt I ate it up and spit it out
I faced it all, and I stood tall and did it my way

I've loved, I've laughed and cried I've had my fill, my share of losing
And now, as tears subside I find it all so amusing
To think I did all that and may I say, not in a shy way
Oh, no, oh, no, not me I did it my way

For what is a man, what has he got? if not himself, then he has naught
To say the things he truly feels and not the words of one who kneels
The record shows I took the blows and did it my way

Yes, it was my way
